My dear Sir

Permit me to introduce to you Mr. John Fowler, the bearer of this letter, one of our most distinguished Engineers, of whom I lately wrote to you.
If you are able to give him any assistance during his stay in Rome, I shall be greatly obliged to you.

I am, my dear Sir,

Yours very truly

Dear Mother

I have just received your letter of the 18th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not seen any of the old friends since I left home. I have not seen any of the old friends since I left home. I have not seen any of the old friends since I left home.

Love, I shall be glad to hear from you.

Yours affectionately,
John
