

13

19, Bloomsbury Street,

London. 16 Dec 1867
W. C.

Sir

I beg leave to inform you that your enlarging lens, ^{apparatus} is now quite completed and I am only waiting for the opportunity of a little fine weather for the purpose of testing it at the New Observatory before sending it to you.

I am Sir

Yours obediently

J. A. Wallney

Rev. P. A. Secchi

19. Bloomsbury Street.

London W.C. 1887

Mr

Professor

I have the pleasure to inform you that your interesting paper is now quite completed and I

am only waiting for the opportunity of a little time to return for the purpose of looking it at the British Museum

before sending it to you

Yours truly

J. A. Allen

J. A. Allen

Prof. J. A. Allen

